Tempura

* The Oregon State Health Department says that consuming raw or undercooked meats, poultry, seafood, shellfish, items that contain raw egg (herbed momiji sauce, house made aioli), or eggs may increase your risk of food-borne illness. Since we are a restaurant that serves predominantly raw meat, menu selections from animal-derived foods that DO NOT contain any raw, undercooked, or cooked to order items (including raw eggs), are marked with an *.

Meat

Our meats come from local ranches (OR/ID) and are grass-fed, hormone-free, and free-range. We use the highest grade of Wagyu beef we can source locally.
